

October 22, 2021

A Notification In Regard To The Postponement Of International Fastener Show China 2021

Distinguished exhibitors, purchasers, visitors and cooperated partners,

As the IFS China 2021 approaches under elaborate plan and active preparation, it is unfortunately to announce the postponement of this exhibition due to the renewed pandemic. In order to guarantee that there would be ZERO new case, ZERO new infection, and ZERO incident of Covid-19, the health and disease prevention & control measures on site will be much more stringent. Based on the overall situation of national prevention & control of Covid-19 and in combination of the local prevention & control situation reported by exhibitors and visitors from each corner of China, in order to reduce the transmission risk, guarantee the health and security of all participants and high-specification presentation of this exhibition, the Organization Committee of IFS China decides to announce after evaluation in many aspects and policies understanding when considering the inconvenience that would be brought to all exhibitors and visitors if the prevention & control measures go much more stringent, that:

The IFS China 2021, which was originally scheduled to be arranged during November 14-16, 2021 at Shanghai World Expo Exhibition and Convention Center, will be postponed to be arranged during the period of June 1-3, 2022 at the same venue (the detailed address is No.1099, Guozhan Road, Pudong New District, Shanghai).

We sincerely apologize for all the inconvenience to you due to the postponement of IFS China 2021 caused by the force majeure of Covid-19. With more time to prepare for the Exhibition, we will pull out all stops to provide audience organization and exhibition services, duly handle the following matters and guarantee the exhibition effect for exhibitors to the full extent. We are expecting the meeting with you again during the period of June 1-3, 2022.

We would like to extend our gratitude to your long-time support and trust to our job. It is believed that with mutual effort and support from each party, IFS China will run true to form to provide a premium platform for activities including industrial trade, technological exchange and the mutual communication and cooperation among international industries, for the sake of providing a splendid annual event for Fastener Industry!

Organization Committee of International Fastener Show China

